Sehr freundliche Mitarbeiter. Alle ansehen Some of the ways to save money by visiting gold coast is to know about the following websites and tips: Infomaps and HelloGoldCoast: Electronic versions of maps and guides in hotels. These are usually some discount coupons for objects, similar to printed versions. You can easily get up to 10% off most attractions. Groupon: It's worth checking Groupon on the Gold Coast, sometimes they are amazing deals not only for attractions, but also for entertainment and dining. You can save a lot there. Gofair: You can put your price on attraction there, a kind of alternative way to look for discounts on the web. Works well in the maximum shut-off season. Shopadocket.com.au: When you shop in Woolworth, Coles etc. you will get some printed coupons on the back side of the receipt. All offers, coupons are published shopadocket.com.au - there might be some good deals for attractions and dining. ExperienceOZ: This is a local Gold Coast company actually. There are no massive discounts there, but they have some great bundles as well as convenient to browse the steps. Visitgoldcoast: Is the official site of the Gold Coast Tourism Corporation. Not really a good discount, its more to check the official view of the Gold Coast City Council tourism business in the city. Worth checking here if you're a tour operator is a member of Gold Coast Tourism. MyGC.com.au: It's pretty much a local site for locals, so it might be very interesting to feel yourself not as a tourist. Their events calendar is one of the best, you can find a lot of events there, including free ones. A great way to improve your holiday experience. Gold Coast Parks and Free Events/Stuff: Unfortunately there is no single website for free stuff on the Gold Coast, and it has a bit of research, but gold coast has really amazing free sites/events/products like Broadwater Parklands, Movie Park etc. Local libraries are good to check, they usually have a lot of printed promotions for free staff there includign free yoga, surfing, puddle boards, fitness, dancing etc. Some other tips to save money when planning your trip to the Gold Coast: Flights and reservations: its better to book as much as possible in a year as they become more expensive close to your trip This is nothing new for Australians, but international tourists can sometimes be negatively surprised because last minute deals are much more developed abroad. Before going to the Tour or Attractions, always check tripadvisor. Yes, its obvious, but still many people go to experience with poor ratings just because they didn't check it in advance. Always ask for a discount from your booking agent. They have a commission from each booking and can share it with you. Sometimes up to 5-7% And finally some alternative ways: Wyndham Vacation Club has some sales booth in Surfers Paradis, you can get amusement park tickets there for as low as $20 per adult. This is a good way to save money if you're ok to spend 1.5 hours on their sales pitch and sure enough that your would be strong enough not to buy your membership stright away. Bartercard: if you or your relatives are members of the bartercard, its worth asking you the manager what you can get on the coast of your Barterdollars. There are some good restaurants that use Barter and you can definetely keep it here. List of major events on the Gold Coast 2020.
